His Holiness, Pope John XXIII and His Excellency, The Most Reverend Albert R. Zuroweste, D.D., Bishop of Belleville

Dear Seniors:

Your motto for the current Year Book, "The Sacred Heart of Jesus through Mary," is indicative of the love and loyalty of the students of Notre Dame for Christ and His Blessed Mother.

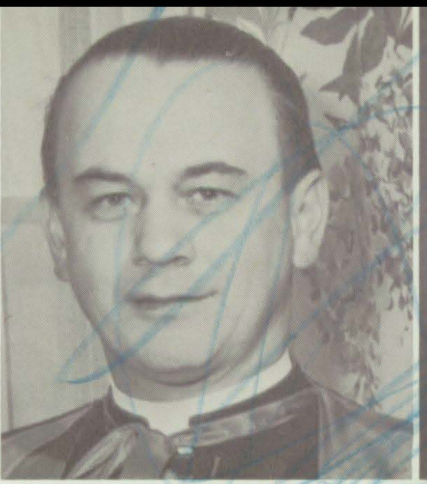

Since its beginning, Notre Dame Academy has always striven to instill into all her students the Christian way of life. Her measure of success has been outstanding, thanks to the dedication of her teachers and the response of her students.

It is our fervent hope that the graduates of 1960 will ever be true and devoted daughters of Jesus and Mary. It is important that you give good example in your everyday life and you will find the source of this in a true devotion to our Divine Savior and our Blessed Lady.

From Our Principal

ACADEMY OF NOTRE DAME
Any Day, Any Year

Dear Students,

Praised by Jesus Christ!

Each morning a small but very important notice is sent from your homeroom to the principal's office. It is called the "Attendance Slip." Much information can be gleaned from these slips, some of which you see lying on the desk before me. For instance, at a glance it is possible to ascertain how many girls are being housed in our buildings for that particular day. A name recurring on the list indicates either serious illness or contrariwise, a desultory interest in scholastic progress.

A large number of absentees might evidence severe weather conditions, an epidemic, or possibly a student body badly in need of inspiration and challenge.

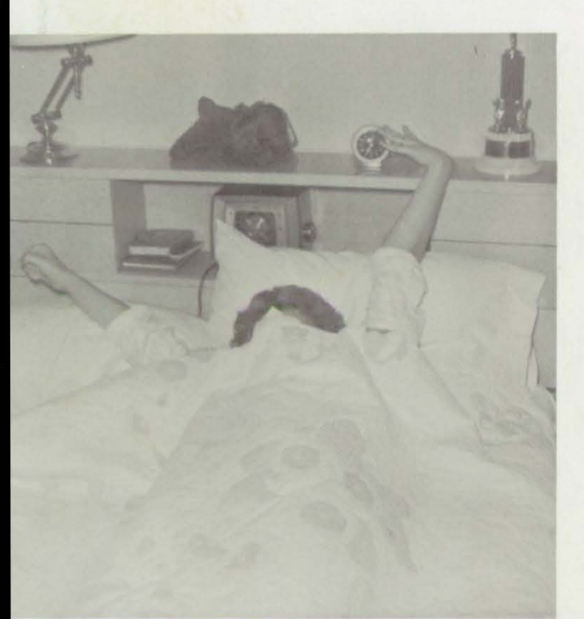

I like to think that as the years progress, spiritual attendance slips will continue to do just such a job, that were it possible to consult the slip daily the name of each and every girl would appear on the list as evidence of her presence in the vocation or avocation to which God has destined her. I would hope to find her in just that spot, working to capacity, efficiently, lovingly, profitably, whether that task be the rearing of a God-fearing family, the educating of God's children as a religious or lay teacher, nursing of His sick, or whatever else it might be.

Then, of course, there is the all-important attendance slip, the one on which we all hope to be listed as "present." I refer to that roster of the names of those who have attained life everlasting in the eternal mansions of God's glory. May the Academy of Notre Dame have "Perfect Attendance" in God's record book for all eternity. Let us pray for one another.

In Notre Dame,

Sister M. Patricia, S.S.N.D.

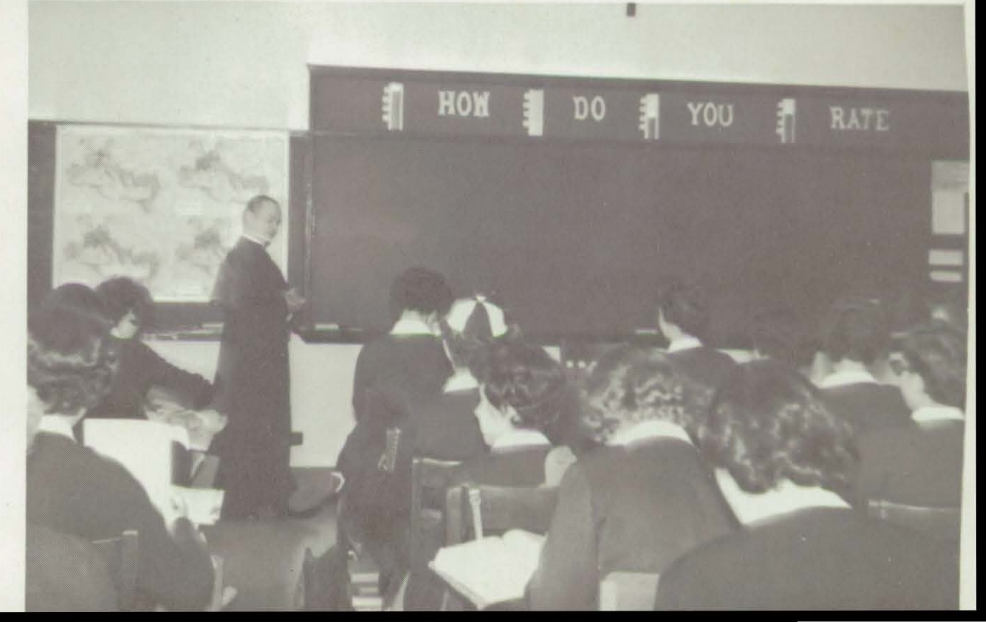

Our Day

7:00 and how hard it is to get up!

Receiving Christ in Holy Communion gives us spiritual nourishment to carry us through the day.

Our religion instructors teach us to keep in touch with God through Christian living.

The slide rule does not prove too great a challenge to this trigonometry class.

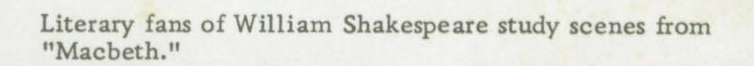

Upward!

Literary fans of William Shakespeare study scenes from "Macbeth."

These French II students seem to be taking the motto on the board, "Silence is Golden" very seriously.

Just relaxing before we resume our studies.

AUXILIUM LATINUM proves that "Latin lives today."
The students also enjoy studying VERGIL in Latin IV.

Students in clothing classes not only learn how to handle a sewing machine; some time is also given to the art of weaving.

Our American Heritage proves to be an interesting topic for discussion.

The citizenship students demonstrate their loyalty to Old Glory.

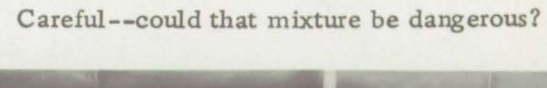

These sophomores find the wonders of biology exciting and interesting.

Art is new and fascinating.

Careful--could that mixture be dangerous?

Quiet please--genius at work!

Vim, vigor, and vitality after a day of school.

DEDICATED TO MICHAEL:

"You whom they call useless, you who are consumed in humble tasks, you babies dead before you have smiled, you old people who are already up to your knees in the grave, you who are weak and suffering and poor and desolate— in the invisible world, which is all that counts, you are the most active tools of redemption, and it is through you as much as through the others, that Christ continues and finishes his work."
